

your wedding day

ROYAL WHITBY

congratulations on your engagement!

We are delighted that you are considering ROYAL WHITBY for your forthcoming wedding celebrations. We are dedicated to taking care of your every need and making sure you have the day of your dreams.

Our experienced Wedding Team can offer guidance throughout, so enjoy browsing our wedding packages and bear in mind that flexibility is our watchword; this is your special day and we will help you tailor it to your personal requirements.

ROYAL WHITBY was built around 1848 by the “Railway King”, George Hudson, and has welcomed guests ever since, apart from a short period when it served as billets for the 50th Regiment LTR during and after the Second World War.

A Grade II listed building, it is noted for its Welsh slate roof and elegant 19th-century glazed canopy. The hotel still reflects its rich heritage through original paintings by Frank Henry Mason, antique stained-glass windows, and a long history of distinguished visitors, including Bram Stoker, Lewis Carroll, Prince Charles and the Sex Pistols.
